THE FIRST-BRIDGEPORT NATIONAL BANK

OF BRIDGEPORT, CONN.

Your first deposit may seem trivial, but we want to Transact your Business. Small Depositors in this institution share alike with Large Depositors in Every Courtesy and Consideration which a bank can show its customers. Many of our Large Accounts were once no larger than Yours is Today.

OFFICERS

Charles G. Sanford, President; F. N. Benham, Vice President; O. H. Brothwell, Cashier; H. C. Woodworth, Asst. Cashier

NOTICE

For forty-four years we have been conducting business at the same old location, corner of Main and John Streets, Bridgeport, Conn., and our Private Bank has been established there continuously. We have received and paid out on demand without notice millions of dollars of money deposited with us and we continue to receive money subject to depositors' check at sight, on which we allow three per cent. per annum, credited to each account monthly. We solicit the accounts of individuals, business men, firms and corporations, and all who want a bank account where they can deposit money, checks or drafts, and leave it for one day, one week, one month or one year, and draw interest on it for any time it is left with us. We give to the business our careful personal attention and the oldest firm of private bankers in this state.

SCHWAEBISHER SINGERS WILL COMPETE IN BIG PHILADELPHIA "FEST"

held an enthusiastic meeting last evening at its hall on Church street in celebration of having won four prizes at Saengerfests during two seasons, an enviable record. Furthermore the members voted to compete in the big Saengerfest to be held at Philadelphia in two years, under the auspices of the North Eastern Saengerbund. If the local society succeeds in capturing a prize in this big competition it will be a high honor.

Last night the ladies of the society presented the chorus with three very handsome sashes of gold and blue to be worn by the Stand-bearers in parading. President Fritz Schlos accepted the gifts with an appropriate speech. Afterward Lester H. Koller of Meriden was presented by the society with a handsome crayon portrait of himself, appreciated and his very excellent work in drilling the big chorus.

A fine supper was served in concluding the evening's celebration. Mayor and Mrs. E. T. Buckingham were among the guests.

NEWTOWN.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CLUB MEET.

The New Hampshire Club of Bridgeport inaugurated its monthly meetings very successfully last night when the club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George P. Rand at their home, 1399 Tranter avenue. The attendance was large and all present manifested the greatest enthusiasm over the prospects of the club. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cram, 347 State street, an invitation to this effect being issued and accepted. Vocal selections by Mr. Rand, Miss Florence Leger and Dr. C. H. Sprague and piano solos by Miss S. Belle Blackstone constituted the entertainment and a genuine New Hampshire luncheon of sweet cider, apples and cake was served.

STRATFORD

More wedding bells, but this time not in Stratford, as the ceremony took place in Washington, D. C. Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Eaton Edwards of Washington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Henry Leroy Lewis, of Watertown, Oct. 12th. Mr. Lewis with his bride will be at home at the Lewis residence in town, near Christ church, after the first of November. He is one of our popular young men, and is being congratulated by a host of friends.

There was a killing frost in town Wednesday night, and all the beautiful flowers on Long Brook avenue and King street have been laid low. Extensive improvements are being made at the old Falkner residence on Kings and Harris streets.

It is now stated in town that the fire at the Clinton residence was caused by a child playing with matches in a closet on an upper floor. The "fire laddies" did good work and soon had the blaze under control.

An objective point for brush fires is a fence near the Clark place, West Broad street and Jackson avenue. During these perilous times, with no showers except "tin," "linen" and "handkerchief," people should wet burlap and cover their fences. This will prevent rather lively blazes, and save calling out the chemical.

Another grass fire was raging yesterday noon just west of Eleanor Park. It was thought Eleanor was in no serious danger.

Fred Wheeler and George Lines should keep their automobiles in the center of the town, in case a fire alarm is sounded on the church bell in the fall streple.

Somebody says a spark from a cigar sets the grass fires to raging, and that such blazes cost the town as much as if Capt. Wakelee's stable should burn down. Boys who smoke on the city should be careful and not throw a lighted stub in the grass. What with the political pot boiling the old town has excitement enough.

Take the kindly advice of an old lady, and be awfully careful.

A gray fox recently ran up a tree in town, owing to its cool skin, and was shot by George Bartlett. It was very lively until filled with buck shot.

The harvest supper last night at the Methodist church was largely attended, the tables having to be set three times. A very bountiful bill of fare was served. There was a fine collection of fruits and vegetables to be sold after the supper. A few of those present included George W. Fairchild and G. W. Fairchild, Jr., Robert L. Brand, wife and daughter, Elliott W. Peck and wife, John M. Dorman and wife, Charles Silliman and wife, C. Wellington Walker and wife, Rev. and Mrs. George Farrar, Frank E. Conine and wife, Mrs. Gilbert, Mr. Holmes and wife, Mr. Welles and wife, and hundreds of others.

Miss Clara Maples of Westport, has been visiting at the Selleck residence.

The Red Men had a very enjoyable time last night at their ball. Dancing was in order, and other attractions along similar lines.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Frank L. Curtis entertains the Afternoon Bridge club.

It is now said the supper to be given by the ladies of the Congregational church will be on the 26th inst. and not next April, as was at one time announced.

The Honsonia doughnuts can now be had on Fridays at a well known news depot.

There are a number of sprained ankles in town, and some of the boys captured in Bridgeport on such streets as Gregory, Austin, Warren and Myrtle avenue. These boys formed a gang, and were of various nationalities, the Russian predominating. Some of them had been virtually abandoned by their parents, who claimed they could do nothing with them. One, at least, had been in the habit of sleeping nights out on the open. One poor fellow barely had clothes to cover his body. It was said that his father is a well-to-do Hebrew with money enough to clothe his boy respectfully, but that he wished to get rid of him. One man had a large family and was struggling along on $1.50 a day, all he could earn, and he had no time to look after his children. It would seem as if these boys should have been in the common schools or in the parochial schools, and that some of our Foreign Missionary Societies might find plenty of work to do at home. The boys were accused of stoning passing steam trains.

Thus far the famous Smith-Berliet machine has managed to lift itself some 5 feet from the ground. How long will it take to fly over the Alps?

John A. Wheeler and wife who live at Oronoque have just celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary.

The land where the "Watch Stratford" store stood, was recently purchased by Frank Sammis from Plumb & Bartram. In good time Mr. Sammis will build a sky scraper—the only one in town.

FAIRFIELD

The local courts were full of business yesterday, no less than nine cases being disposed of. They were held by Judge W. H. Smith, who was assisted by a gang, and were of various nationalities, the Russian predominating. Some of them had been virtually abandoned by their parents, who claimed they could do nothing with them. One, at least, had been in the habit of sleeping nights out on the open. One poor fellow barely had clothes to cover his body. It was said that his father is a well-to-do Hebrew with money enough to clothe his boy respectfully, but that he wished to get rid of him. One man had a large family and was struggling along on $1.50 a day, all he could earn, and he had no time to look after his children. It would seem as if these boys should have been in the common schools or in the parochial schools, and that some of our Foreign Missionary Societies might find plenty of work to do at home. The boys were accused of stoning passing steam trains.

By Bridgeport, which is in Fairfield, and therefore after having been rounded up by Division Special Agent L. B. Lewis, they were taken in hand by Sheriff Burr and Constable Smith, and brought before Bacon Wakeman. The forenoon session of the court was held at the town hall, but the concluding proceedings took place in Mr. Wakeman's office. The boys while stoning the trains did excellent execution, and smashed many windows, alarming the passengers, and causing the engineers and train hands to dodge broken glass.

They were from 12 to 16 years of age. Their names were as follows: Stanley Bassett, Daniel Bowden, Jacob Sherwood, Francis Bowden, Andrew Smetter, James McGee, Walter Doolin, Joseph Aucton, and Herbert McGee. Of these but two were sent to the reform school at Meriden—Jacob Sherwood and Joseph Aucton. When these boys learned their destination they indulged in a severe spell of crying, but by 4 o'clock, in the afternoon, they were taken to the reform school, where they were housed in the boys' dormitory. Some of the other boys were released on probation, and some were discharged.

Mrs. Lloyd C. Griscom, and Judge Beardsley were two of the guests at the Jennings reception on Wednesday evening.

Notices have been posted about town for a Democratic caucus to be held next Tuesday at the Town Hall. The Harvest supper at the Congregational church will be held this evening.

Rev. Frank S. Child is in Boston attending the great convention of Congregationalists.

Mrs. William B. Hulse gave a very pretty reception on Wednesday evening attended by some 40 guests.

Prof Swann is gradually recovering from his recent illness. Yesterday he was able to take a walk on the street.

Miss Ethel Donaldson is visiting in New Haven.

It is said the reason the trolley car ran into Mr. Hull's milk wagon a few mornings ago, was owing to the fact that there was an "excess of moisture on the rails" which made them slippery. Where the moisture came from is a mystery, as there had been no rain for several weeks.

Louis E. Morehouse is spending the week end in town.
